October 2017 NEWSLETTER

OLD NEWS:

- The Pit Firing at Raye Batham's house was cancelled due to the fire ban.
- The Raku firing was an excellent opportunity for members to experiment with different firing techniques.
- Jana Workshop was well attended with all participants producing fantastic work. Huge thank you to Jana for an interesting and informative workshop.
- An exhibition of these works is planned for February 2018 in Warwick Art Gallery New Art Space
- Rodeo markets were a huge success, Big thanks to Sue Creed and her helpers
- I hope you saw the Potters Float in parade check out our Facebook Page for pictures
Thank you to those creative helpers who dressed our float.
- Thank you to everyone who helped mark out sites in the park, assisted with Craft Market in the early hours of Saturday and were on hand throughout the day
