Local Happenings

Cruchaich: The due date for entries for Cruthaich! our upcoming Celtic-inspired exhibition have been extended by two weeks. Entry forms are now due Friday 18 February.

Artists are invited to take an every object and elevate it, drawing inspiration from the Celtic tradition of enhancing the beauty of the everyday. Artists are encouraged to use any object available to them and turn it into a work of art and may wish to incorporate motifs and themes common in Celtic art. More information and entry conditions can be found on our website. Collect an entry form from the Gallery.

PUB ROCK: A National Portrait Gallery Exhibition officially opens on Friday 18 Feb at 6.30pm. Join us for a night of sounds, sights and sliders with a guest performance by musician Warren Meneely.

Pub Rock is a celebration of the phenomenon that spread across Australia throughout the 70s and 80s. This vibrant (sometimes sweaty) exhibition of home grown rock 'n' roll, punk and pop features works from the National Portrait Gallery collection alongside images by leading Australian music photographers.

Please confirm your attendance by booking a free ticket here at Warwick Tickets

From Our Members

Meet Madeline - Sue Whitton created her at the Janna Pameijer workshop held early last year. Using a matt black Sue did a low glaze fire with a long soak which resulted in a surprising gold crystal growth.

Do you have an upcoming event that you would like to share with our members please email Leah at president@potters.org.au with all the details and any images and it will be shared in the next newsletter.
