Surfaces Series Workshops: have now been completed and all firings have been finished. We were fortunate to have Nicci Parry Jones and Lindsay Muir visit Warwick and share their knowledge about pottery and surface decoration. Workshops like these would not be possible without funding assistance from SDRC and RADF and for that the Warwick Potters Association is grateful and acknowledges their contribution.

More photos from the workshops can be found on our Facebook page

Jumpers And Jazz:

Warwick Potters hosts 3 events at the iconic Jumpers and Jazz festival, Soup Night, Open Gallery and the Market, and as usual members are relied on to assist at these three events.

Soup Night: Members have been busy making bowls for this year’s event but many more are still needed. More details about how many are still required will be available at the next club meeting.

Soup: On the board at the club house is the list of soups and how many litres are needed per soup. Please add your name and how much soup you can donate. Soup donations are to be delivered on the day of the event and not to be frozen.

Assistance will also be needed for set up (day of), during the event – ticket check, soup warming, running soup to serving station, on bread station, gallery and then the packing down. Individual jobs will be listed on the board by the July meeting.

Any assistance you can give at any time during this event will be appreciated, for without our club volunteers these fundraising events could not happen. To say thank you for your assistance member volunteers will receive a free soup ticket, but will need to supply their own bowl.

Gallery: The members Gallery will be open during Soup night as well as Friday and Saturday for visitors to browse and purchase work from our members. We will need volunteers to man the gallery desk. This year we are bringing back the feature display. An opportunity for members to get creative and create a themed piece to be a part of our feature display – Unfunctional Soup Bowl – it looks like a soup bowl but can’t be used as a soup bowl. Let your imagination run free.

Markets: Our market team and treasurer have been very busy behinds the scenes organizing the markets and again we will be relying on the assistance of the Yangan Masonic Lodge to assist in the set-up, running and clean up of the markets on the day. Ros and Penny will again be manning the potters stall and would love to have any other members come and help out.

Again, all assistance from our members during these events is appreciated.

Totem Pole: New and Old members our totem poles need some love. Let’s get some new blocks up there. Templates can be found on the worktable near the tool station.

CELTICFest: members are invited to contact the Celtic festival organizers if they are interested in holding a stall at the festival this year celticfest@celticfest.com.au
